

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1906

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE LEDGER is under obligations to Senator William H. Cox for late public documents.

Colonel James W. Outten yesterday had a pair of eagles in Mr. Henry W. Ray's drugstore that were beauties.

Mr. William Rice, aged 21, and Miss Mary Jane Green, aged 14, were married for the first time in Lewis county a few days ago.

Rev. R. J. Graetz will preach in the German Lutheran Church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. in the English language. All cordially invited.

George M. Clinger, Jr., a bricklayer, son of Mr. George M. Clinger of this city, was married at Portsmouth a few days ago to Miss Fannie Hall.

The Y. M. C. A. will conduct an athletic meet tonight at 7 o'clock. Events—high jump, broad jump, pull up, 3 broad jumps, 3 lap relay, basket ball toss, rope climb, vault over high horse. Public welcome.

Call and let me show what a handsome Diamond Ring, Stud or Pendant I can sell you for little money. Prices are guaranteed lower than you buy for anywhere.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Congressman Bennett has introduced a bill in Congress to equalize the pension of widows. As the law now stands, a widow of a soldier who drew under the General Law gets $12 per month, while the widow of the soldier who is pensioned under the New Law, or act of June, 1890, only gets $8 per month.

A most excellent report has lately been received by Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Parker from the teachers of Cascadilla, the well known preparatory school for entrance to Cornell University, concerning the standing of their son, Preston. Although one of the youngest in the school, he ranks fourteenth in a class of one hundred and ten young men. Preston Parker is an honor pupil of the Graduating Class of 1905 of the Mayeville High School.

Mrs. Mayme Hickman has nearly twenty pupils attending her private school at Dover.

SPECIAL MEETING

Committee Gets Busy and Tries to Solve Street Problem

The sole topic of conversation the past few days has been about the ugly condition of the streets of this city—or what Council sees fit to spend about $10,000 a year on and call streets.

Several members of the present City Council really want something that will make a good street and to have somebody that knows how to put it down.

Mayor Stallcup and the Committee appointed at the last session of Council had a special meeting Wednesday night to talk the matter over and see what could be done towards making a start for this much needed improvement. After all had talked and given their opinions as to the kind of material needed and the best way to raise the money to pay for it, upon motion members J. A. Dodson, T. M. Russell and John W. Eitel were selected as a special committee to visit Ashland and other places if they desired and inspect the brick streets and their cost, both in construction and in keeping after they are constructed; to make a thorough examination as to cost and the methods used in paying for the improvements, and to report back to Council at its regular meeting next month.

This is a move in the right direction and will be hailed with delight by our citizens, as it is hoped it will be the starting point of this city securing good, substantial thoroughfares.

The Committee will leave in a few days on their trip of inspection, and it is hoped that when they return they will present a plan to Council that will be accepted and that work on the much-needed improvement will be begun immediately.

A bit egotistic perhaps, but it is pardonable. You'll say so too if you will look at and try on some of our new spring clothing. Here you find the very newest ideas in suits, cravenettes, top overcoats. Our sack suits run from the medium length to the extreme long that Dame Fashion calls for this season. Grey effects, blacks and blues will predominate this spring. In blacks and blues many double-breasted will again be worn. In colors the single-breasted sack will be the most favored.

Our shoe department is now at its very best. The newest styles in Hanan & Son, W. L. Douglas and Walk-over are our lines. You cannot make a mistake in buying shoes of us.

A PROGRESSIVE HOME INDUSTRY.

Maysville is to be congratulated that she has now in every respect a first class, up-to-date Laundry. "The Model" is its name and that is what it is—second to none in the Ohio Valley—occupying the three-story brick building of the late George H. Heiser, opposite the Opera-house. Well located, well equipped with the latest improved machinery, The Model Laundry Company of Maysville, Kentucky, now enters the field as a competitor for out-of-town work. Beginning with next week everything at the plant will be in good running order.

Besides bath rooms, the Company has added a carpet cleaning department, where at moderate cost housekeepers can get their carpets and rugs cleaned, woven, dyed and renovated.

In this line of business Maysville is certainly forging to the front.

WORK OF CRANK

Letter to Governor Beckham About Plot to Release Powers

Jailer Benjamin Ploeger of Newport, who has the custody of Caleb Powers, laughs at the report concerning an alleged attempt to rescue his famous prisoner, as contained in a letter to Governor Beckham.

Mr. Powers was incensed when told of the letter to the Governor, and said that if every door of the Jail was opened and unguarded he would remain in his cell. He said:

"I prefer justice and vindication to liberty. I have been in Jail six years next Saturday, and my one object during all of that time has been to bring out the truth as to the killing of Senator Goebel."

Jailer Ploeger said:
"Evidently the letter was written by either a crank or an enemy of Caleb Powers. Powers has been guarded carefully ever since he has been here, and he will continue to be so guarded."

"When the United States officers arrive to take Caleb Powers to Georgetown he will be found right in the Newport Jail."

CAN anyone tell why the Legislature will spend days—at a cost of $1,000 a day—monkeying with unconstitutional redistricting bills?

SOME of Chicago's big business buildings show an inclination to slip through to China. They are making a tunnel through the city, and most of the space between the street and the arch is pure mud, which accounts for the sinking. The only mistake is in not having that space filled with Maysville mud; nothing could sink in it.

IN the last hour of the late regular session of the Legislature, the Senate passed the iniquitous Legislative Redistricting Bill, by which it is sought to increase the number of Democratic members of the House of Representatives.

The bill divides the state into 100 Legislative Districts, grouping Republican counties of large population, and making a single District of Democratic counties of small population, assuring the Democrats of four more seats in the House. For instance, Hancock, with a population of 8,914, is made a separate District, while Ohio, Butler and Edmonson, with a combined population of 53,000, are grouped.

All of which is in direct violation of the Constitution of the state; and to decide the matter the Hon. WILLIAM C. HALBERT of Lewis has been authorized to bring suit to test its legality.

IN digging a hole at Frankfort a few days ago a workman found an old coffepot containing $271. Wonder if it had anything to do with shooting GORBEL?

I WOULDN'T think of accusing the late TOM CAMPBELL of "packing" a Jury; I wouldn't insinuate that Judge CANTRILL really meant what he said in his speech in the Courthouse in this city—"If it hadn't been for my decisions on the Bench there wouldn't be a Democrat in office at Frankfort today;"—nor would I even intimate that Judge CANTRILL, or the Sheriff, or the Lawyers, knew anything about the manner of "fixing things" for the conviction of CALEB POWERS in the trials presided over by him at Georgetown; oh, no, not on your life. But I'll be content to let the Chief Justice of the United States and every one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court—for the opinion was unanimous—speak upon that matter.

Discussing the contention that CALEB POWERS had not had, and could not get, a fair trial in the Goebelized Courts of Kentucky, the Supreme Court of the United States said—

"It is true that, looking alone at the case as made by the petition for removal, the trials of the accused make an exhibition of MISCONDUCT ON THE PART OF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS CONNECTED WITH THOSE TRIALS which may well shock all who love justice and recognize the right of every human being accused of crime to be tried according to law.

"Further, the case as made by the record, it must be conceded, tends to show, if it does not justify the belief, that ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS HAVING CONNECTION WITH THE TRIALS OF THE ACCUSED, had it in mind at each trial to exclude from the Jury, so far as it was possible to do so, every person, however competent, who belonged to the same political party as the accused."

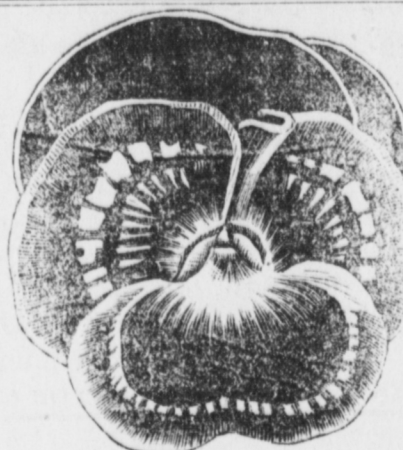

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT."

HURRIED eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health. A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness. In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

The Mary Brown Church at Pittsburgh has notified Martha Lewis to give up the brewery bonds given her by Captain S. S. Brown. The Church was built by Captain Brown, the famous horseman, and Miss Lewis is the young woman of whom Brown took good care in his will. He left her $30,000 worth of Pittsburgh Brewing Company bonds. There was a meeting and Miss Lewis defied the Church people to do their worst. If it be found that Miss Lewis really holds the beer bonds given to her by the late horse owner she may be deposed. Friends of Miss Lewis assert that had it not been for Miss Lewis Captain Brown would never have built the Church or left it $70,000, as was done.

WHOLESALE RATES

Wholesale rates mean wholesale transactions. We order paper for the Stoddard Lectures twenty car-loads at a time. We print and bind on the same scale. We reduce expenses to a minimum by making a quick, yet thorough canvass of each city, thereby bunching orders, deliveries, and collections at one-half what they would cost if scattered. To this end a corps of our best salesmen are here for a short time only to explain our special offer, show the work, and give you an opportunity to secure it at wholesale rates. WHEN THEY LEAVE YOU CAN OBTAIN IT ONLY AT REGULAR RATES FOR OCCASIONAL ORDERS, or at an advance of one-half.

This advance is absolute and unavoidable. Our wholesale offer is possible only on the above basis, it being self-evident that when the cost of production or distribution of any article increases the price to the purchaser must increase also.

SOME SECRETS

About the Famous
Caleb Powers
Juries

Robert Hunt, 309 Russell street, Covington, has laid before Caleb Powers, thrice convicted of the murder of Senator Goebel, evidence of a sensational nature, tending to show that in summoning veniremen for the trial of Powers, Goebel Democrats carried out a skillfully arranged plan to allow no one but friends on the panel, and that, having once gotten them there, to keep them under discipline by means of spotters.

Powers gave a statement for the first time Monday to The Times-Star. The evidence he has secured both encouraged and discouraged him. It showed to him more conclusively than ever before that his three previous trials were mere travesties, but it also showed to him that he had little to hope for among men who had treated him with such unscrupulous methods in the past. At the conclusion of the statement given to The Times-Star Mr. Powers was asked, in view of the fact that the United States Supreme Court had refused to take the case away from the Kentucky Courts, he had any reason to expect a fair trial when the case comes up for hearing a fourth time. Mr. Powers replied with something like resignation, but without any diminution of his fighting spirit: "In Georgetown? I have not the ghost of a show."

Robert Hunt, now living in Covington, formerly lived in Bourbon county, and was summoned as a jurymen in the last trial of Caleb Powers. He is, or was at least, a Goebel Democrat, which makes his disclosures still more important. He went to Powers in the Newport Jail a few days ago and revealed what he claimed are facts as to the inner workings of the last venire of 176 men drawn to try Powers. He says he was approached by spotters for the Goebel faction, who sought to pump him. He refused to commit himself. Thereupon, when he was given his preliminary examination as to his qualifications to serve, he was peremptorily excused. Hunt gave Powers names of those who accosted him. The formal statement given The Times-

Star Monday by Caleb Powers, relating to the disclosures, is as follows:

"The Jury in the last trial came from Bourbon county. This county gave McKinley 400 majority over Bryan in 1896. I state this fact because, in the light of what follows, it is significant. Out of 176 men summoned from Bourbon county for jury service in the last trial 173 men were partisan Goebel Democrats."

"The 176 men were herded together and taken on the same train to Georgetown. When they reached the depot at Paris for the purpose of going on to Georgetown to serve at my trial, certain men went among those summoned and secretly ascertained from them just how they stood on the question of my guilt or innocence, and what their attitude would be at the trial."

"Robert Hunt, a Goebel Democrat, was among the Jurymen who was summoned among the 176 men. He now lives in Covington. Mr. Hunt came to me on a recent date, and in the presence of a man named Stivers, and his father, now living on Second street, Newport, made an important statement."

"Stivers is a carpenter. He formerly lived in Bourbon county and knows the parties concerned."

"Hunt told me that when the 176 veniremen reached the depot platform at Paris one of the veniremen approached him and said: 'When we get to Georgetown I guess we will break that fellow Powers's neck, won't we?' Mr. Hunt refused to commit himself, and when he was called on examination in my last trial he was at once excused from the Jury. The Jurymen who approached Hunt was named to me by Hunt."

Is Powers depressed or discouraged at the failure of the Supreme Court of the land to grant his prayer? Is this famous prisoner, center figure in one of the most astonishing tragedies of the epoch, losing his nerve in the face of repeated setbacks? Not in the least. His jaws set just as resolutely as ever. He does not flinch from discussing frankly the possibilities, perhaps the probabilities, in a county where every man is a politician and every politician is against him. But he knows that he has friends, and on these he depends.

"What will you do next?" was asked.
"I shall have to await the formal mandate of the Court returning me to the custody of the county authorities. I expect this will come in thirty days. In the meantime my Attorneys will take every possible step to safeguard my interests. These Attorneys are Judge H. Clay Howard of Paris; Senator E. L. Worthington of Maysville; Judge J. C. Sims of Bowling Green, and former Governor F. S. Black of New York. I look for some of these counsel during the present week. I have no counsel in either Newport or Cincinnati. I do not care to state now anything which may be done."

"Have I given up hope? No, I have not. They have not 'cracked Powers's neck yet.'"

It was not said with boasting, nor with the slightest bit of vulgar braggadocio. It was the quiet statement of a man in whose character was a predominating streak of simple courage, not mere optimistic sentiment. Powers spoke of his mother, brother and sister living in Barberton with feeling. He thanked all his friends for their persistent and unflinching devotion."

In a statement of some length issued by Powers late Monday night, he asks his friends to keep in mind three points: First, that the United States Supreme Court was not asked to pass on his guilt or innocence, but only a question of jurisdiction, and that its decision does not in any way imply guilt; second, that it has never been decided that he had a fair trial, and, lastly, that the only thing the Supreme Court decided was a cold proposition of law that it had no power to remove the case from the State Courts. If the prosecution had intended for Powers to have a fair trial it would never have objected to the case going to the Federal Courts, he said.

HUNT CONFIRMS.

Robert Hunt is a carpenter, and lives at 309 Russell street, Covington. To The Times-Star Tuesday he corroborated his interview with Caleb Powers.

"I told Powers," he said, "that I was ready to go on the stand and testify to the occurrence at Georgetown at the trial, where I had been subpoenaed to serve as a Juror. Before I had been called in the Court I was approached by a man who said that he had been employed to ascertain the sympathies of the veniremen before they were examined for Jurors. He got no satisfaction from me, and when I was called to the Jury and stated that I was unprejudiced I was accepted by both sides, but was afterwards rejected on the motion of the State's Attorneys."

Turning Your Back on Opportunity

You have heard Joel Chandler Harris's story of the little chap who went rabbit hunting? He tramps all over searching everywhere for Br'er Rabbit, who had cunningly seated himself on the gun stock.

There's no need for you to hunt all over the country for your vehicle or harness. No reason for going to the "next town" or letting the catalogue houses delude you with cleverly-worded deception. Right here at home is to be found what you need—a stock suited in every particular to the requirements of this section, selected by one who knows our folk and their needs and sold at prices as low as can be obtained anywhere. COME IN.

INTERESTING LETTER

WRITTEN BY A NOTABLE WOMAN

Mrs. Sarah Kellogg of Denver, Color Bearer of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sends Thanks to Mrs. Pinkham.

The following letter was written by Mrs. Kellogg, of 1628 Lincoln Ave., Denver, Col., to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.: "For five years I was troubled with a tumor, which kept growing, causing me intense agony and great mental depression. I was unable to attend to my house work, and life became a burden to me. I was confined for days to my bed, lost my appetite, my courage and all hope. "I could not bear to think of an operation, and in my distress I tried every remedy which I thought would be of any use to me, and reading of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to sick women decided to give it a trial. I felt so discouraged that I had little hope of recovery, and when I began to feel better, after the second week, thought it only meant temporary relief; but to my great surprise I found that I kept gaining, while the tumor lessened in size. "The Compound continued to build up my general health and the tumor seemed to be absorbed, until, in seven months, the tumor was entirely gone and I a well woman. I am so thankful for my recovery that I ask you to publish my letter in newspapers, so other women may know of the wonderful curative powers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women, to write her for advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease has been advising sick women free of charge. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

"THE PLAYER MAID."

Florence Davis, who is to appear in "The Player Maid" at the Washington Theater next Monday night, is a native of Kentucky and has a distinguished Southern ancestry on both her father's and mother's side of the house. The play in which she will appear here is a comedy written around the life of theater folk in the eighteenth century. The part played by Miss Davis is that of Eleanor Hallam, a young actress who was a society pet at that time, and the story is cleverly woven around the caprices of this young woman. Seats on sale Saturday morning at Ray's.

I have a house for sale that somebody wants and the only reason that person does not come to me and buy at once, is that the somebody thinks no one else is after it. Do not deceive yourself. Delays are dangerous. Buy today. The house you want may be sold in less than 24 hours. See John Duley.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

TIRED OF LIFE AWFUL SUFFERING

From Dreadful Pains From Wound on Foot—System All Run Down After Six Months' Agony—Not Able to Work—Completely Cured in Two Weeks

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Words cannot speak highly enough for the Cuticura Remedies. I am now seventy-two years of age. My system had been all run down. My blood was so bad that blood poisoning had set in. I had several doctors attending me, so finally I went to the hospital, where I was laid up for two months. My foot and ankle were almost beyond recognition. Dark blood flowed out of wounds in many places, and I was so disheartened that I thought surely my last chance was slowly leaving me. As the foot did not improve, you can readily imagine how I felt. I was simply disgusted and tired of life. I stood this pain, which was dreadful, for six months, and during this time I was not able to wear a shoe and not able to work."

"Some one spoke to me about Cuticura. The consequences were I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies of one of my friends who was a druggist, and the praise that I gave after the second application is beyond description; it seemed a miracle, for the Cuticura Remedies took effect immediately. I washed the foot with the Cuticura Soap before applying the Ointment and I took the Resolvent at the same time. After two weeks' treatment my foot was healed completely. People who had seen my foot during my illness and who have seen it since the cure, can hardly believe their own eyes."

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Maysville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

Danger Signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Maysville proof: James D. Tolle, clerk at Wood Bros. meat market, and living at 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened and passages of the secretions were too frequent, and there was a scalding burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and finding great benefit, continued the treatment until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
